

Supervised Visitation Program

SVP provides supervised visitation in a structured and therapeutic environment to families whose children are in the custody of DCPD.

Program Goals: Decrease the amount of time children spend in out-of-home placement and move the child toward permanent placement, either with their biological family or in an adoptive home.

Specialized Services:

- Structured and supportive atmosphere to lessen the traumatic effects of separation and out-of-home placement
- Psycho-education on parenting skills, child rearing techniques and child development, as well as management of time, anger and stress
- Round-trip transportation for children and parents
