

Ch.I.P.

Children's Intensive Program

Ch.I.P. serves children 4-18 who have recently been hospitalized in a Children's Crisis Intervention Service (CCIS) Unit, and their families.

Program Goals: Reduce the risk for re-hospitalization and out-of-home placement, stabilize the family unit, and empower parents to make informed decisions and advocate on behalf of their children.

Specialized Services...

- Individual and Family Therapy
- Linkages to Additional Services
- Skill Development
- Advocacy
- School Liaison
- Case Management

Ch.I.P. services utilize a systems approach to ensure the client receives the best possible care.
